

WHAT HAPPENED IN CHICAGO

Two shot in pistol duel between Michael Semprevio, 20, 5051 Federal st., and Michael Serg, 22, 4224 Federal st. Leb Rodgers, negro, seriously wounded by flying bullet.

Engagement of Miss Beatrice Butler and Alfeo Faggi, Italian sculptor, announced.

Evanston respectables purchased land to stop invasion of select district by hotel.

Judge Gemmill sued by Dr. N. Ellis Oliver, 711 Diversey Parkway. Claims judge called him "crook."

Robert Schufeldt, wealthy farmer, who abandoned wife and children 7 years ago, sent to Bridewell for refusing to support family.

Yee Wah Fung, 3948 W. Madison st., accidentally swallowed morphine. Declared dead. Revived by oxygen.

Louis Tott, Harvey Ill., wants divorce. Claims wife paid negro $5 to kill him.

Mrs. Edna Morgan Dean awarded $10,000 from estate of father-in-law. Court decided that she lived harmoniously with hubby.

Harry A. Wheeler, vice president of Union Trust Co., appointed member of Federal Reserve Bank Board.

Eight negro nurses received diplomas at Provident Hospital Training School.

Charles Kuhn, alias Charles Schultz, 1008 W. Monroe, held as forger. Alleged to have passed worthless checks.

Wilbur Glenn Voliva, "overlord" Zion City, may be dethroned. John A. Lewis claims he usurped title. Wants receivership rulings of Judge Landis set aside.

Rumored that Mary Garden has been dismissed by Chicago Opera Company. Directors believed to have refused a raise in salary.

$25,000 statue of John P. Altgeld will be made by Guston Borglum, New York.

Chief of Police Gleason denies rumored resignation.

Utilities commission formulating rules for regulation of gas and electric plants.

Karl Koelling, 83, composer and pianist, dead. Was court musician at 12.

Joseph and John Raab, 845 Center st., fined $200 and costs for beating mother.

Allen Riley and Joseph Smith, 6106 Blackstone av., fined $200 for enticing girls in flat. Girls placed on probation.

Sophia Wetzler, 16, 1460 Melrose av., struck by street car. Skull fractured.

Brief filed in suit for $200,000 state's attorney's fees by John E. W. Wayman estate.

20 inmates of Temple Hotel, W. Chicago av., fined $5 to $25 and costs in Morals Court.

Patrick O'Hara, 744 Belmont av., hit by electric sign in front of 1218 Lawrence av. Dead.

Louis Hedgus, 415 N. Elizabeth av., arrested for assault with motorcycle. Alleged to have struck Dorothy Thomas, 18, Sunday.

Bertha Miller, 13, 4253 Broadway, hit by auto. Arthur Harbolt, chauffeur, not arrested.

Twelve men in raid on 35 S. Clark st. John Grace booked as keeper of gambling house.

John J. Jelks, millionaire oleo manufacturer, given two years in prison and $10,000 fine for oleo frauds. Seven associates fined $2,500 each.

Edmund K. Jarecki appointed to succeed Judge Fake in Municipal Court.

Rooms at Hatfield dormitory, Northwestern University, looted. Five students report stuff missing.

George Keating, 534 W. 60th pl., and Carl Zimmerman, 5845 S. Halsted st., held as burglar suspects.

Parents fighting for custody of Evelyn Collinet, 3. Hubby claims wife sold furniture and disappeared with child.